

Obtaining a Santa Clara County Obituary

The newspaper of record for funeral notices and obituaries for persons who died in Santa Clara County is the San Jose Mercury News and its predecessor newspapers, the San Jose Mercury Herald and the San Jose News. Santa Clara City Library's microfilm holdings of the SJMN begin with 1987.

Following are options for obtaining an obituary (and/or a death certificate):

Access the Santa Clara County Historical & Genealogical Society's online research link: <http://scchgs.org/shop/research.html> and send in your request via email to research@scchgs.org. A fee is charged.

Write to the Santa Clara County Historical & Genealogical Society, c/o Santa Clara City Library, 2635 Homestead Road, Santa Clara, CA 95051, Attention: Research Consultant; include a self-addressed stamped envelope. The Society recommends that requestors fill out the application at <http://scchgs.org/shop/research.html>. For pre-1987 obituaries, consultants must travel to San Jose—thus additional time may be needed to fill the request. A fee is charged.

Access the Silicon Valley Library System Reference Center Web site: <http://obit.systemref.org>; fill out the form to request an obituary or a death notice. A fee is charged.

Using your local library's Interlibrary Loan service, order microfilm of the San Jose Mercury and other California newspapers (some back to 1850) for the date needed from the California State Library, P.O. Box 942837, Sacramento, CA 94237-0001.

If you are in the local area, go to the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Library 150 E. San Fernando St., San Jose, CA 95112 to search the newspaper microfilm yourself.

To obtain a death certificate, contact the Santa Clara County Clerk-Recorder's Office at (408) 299-2481; information also is available at: <http://www.clerkrecorder.org>.
